Richard D. Wells,

My dear old friend,

I am happy to receive your letter. I wish I could do more in aid of the good objects you present to me. - But the numerous calls upon me have left me but very little pecuniary means. Inclose you $15 of your retained annuity. I must wish it could all get you from me two dollars.

How the times fall away! I recall my friendship of this Fourth of June day!

I thank you for your making no mention of your health. But you are pretty well again. Remember me kindly to your daughter -

Our dear friend Young I have not seen for a long time. He is beginning to show

With great regard, your friend
